2nd Annual Beerline Shuffle community walk takes place tomorrow

The second annual Beerline Shuffle, a community walk on the Beerline Trail in both Harambee and Riverwest, is set to take place this Saturday, October 1 (TOMORROW) from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. The Beerline Shuffle aims to showcase local art, music and promote unity all while encouraging residents to get active. Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs is urging residents to participate in this community event organized by the Riverworks Development Corp.

The walk will begin and end at the Beerline Plaza located at 3350 N. Holton St., and the route will feature live music and multiple community art projects. Check-in will begin at 9 a.m. with the walk stepping off promptly at 10 a.m. and ending at approximately noon. Afterwards, there will be live music and a vendor market event on the Beerline Plaza from noon - 3:00 p.m. Participation in the Beerline Shuffle is free, but for those wanting official Beerline Shuffle swag, as well as access to all snack stations, the cost is $15 for adults and $10 for children. Registration and additional information can be accessed at www.riverworksmke.org/beerline-shuffle.

All proceeds will go toward the cost of the event and to support Riverworks' mission of driving social and economic development to strengthen residents and businesses in Harambee, Riverwest and the surrounding communities.
